Billing:

Tuition can be paid by the semester for a 10% discount or by monthly installments. Galveston Ballet is a non-profit organization and operates on a tight budget. Tuition is due on the 1st day of each month for all members. A late fee of $15 will be assessed to members if no tuition payment is received by the 10th of the month. If a student's tuition payment is not received by the end of the month in which it is due, the student will be suspended from class until tuition and other required fees are paid. Galveston Ballet charges $30 for any returned check plus any additional bank fees.

Initial: _____

Performances:

A performance fee is required from students who participate in Community Events and/or other performances. The performance fee helps to defray the cost of venues, scenery, backdrops, costumes, props, etc. Students who do not wish to participate in the performances should notify their instructor upon enrollment since it is necessary to use a portion of class time to learn choreography prior to performances. Initial: _____

Fundraising:

Tuition covers approximately one third of our operating expenses. The balance is funded by a combination of grants, donations, ticket sales, cruise raffle, and proceeds of annual fundraisers. As a cooperative organization, all Galveston Ballet families are expected to participate in our fundraising efforts. Initial: _____

Arrival and pick up times:

No student should arrive earlier than fifteen minutes before their class time. Please be on time for class and make necessary arrangements to leave on time at the end of class. For their safety, no minor student will be allowed to wait outside the building. Initial: _____

Class Absence:

Attendance is required for all classes. In the event a student must miss a class, please notify the instructor by sending an email to Galveston Ballet@att.net or text (409) 599-6514 with your dancer's name, class level and reason for missing. Any absence with no prior notice given to the instructor will be considered unexcused. Initial: _____
